Waiting for You

Teen Idols

As close but far away one more show left to play then I'll be back to you and we'll do the things I promised to say what I wanna hear sweet nothings in my ear voices soft and low on a hotel lobby telephone you know I miss you I lie awake with a heavy heart did I forget to say all the things I meant to say convince myself that you're okay ('cause I'm) waiting for you waiting for you pick up the phone I know your home and I'm alone you know that I'm waiting for you waiting for you I know you're there but you don't care that I'm unaware you're waiting for me too
