

Chosen One

One Eskimo

You might not be the chosen one
Still you wait for your time to come
But your faith has taken a tumble
And your pride is shaken and humble, now You must know nothing's set in stone
You must know that you're not alone You try not to ever hate
But can't help but overcompensate
As a smile says everything's rosy
Maybe ten percent then it's mostly, yeah You must know nothing's set in stone
You must know that you're not alone You dream of another world
Where the guy always gets a girl
But your life is not like the movies
You can tune your way to hero, should we? Sometime for the underdog
We should take time for the underdog The calm ones will get it done
And it's the brave that will overcome
Should you listen to your voices
When they lie and give you no more choices? Frame what you're gonna do
In this phase that you're going through
