Liars Tears

Embrace

Whenever you reach up to the stars
Hold on to your head it won't take long
Until you can see the doubt
In the people you've leaned onBut angels rush in where all those fools
Fear to tread, afraid they'd lose
But you never lost you're beauty
Although you lost your hopeAnd you made no mistake
You couldn't wash away
With liars tears
Pouring down your faceWhenever we meet, you say you've changed
Like its some gift, you're not the same
But you're just the cat whose landed
Back on her feet again'Cause you made no mistake
That can't be washed away
With liars tears
Pouring down your faceWith liars tears
Pouring down your face
