

Good Looking Loser

Meiko

Look what you've done
Look what you have become
You're a puppet, a fool, and a thief
With my eyes closed
'Cause that's how it goes
Everyone knew it but me
You're a good looking loser
And I'm the one who got away
With my eyes full of tears
And my hands with two beers
I'm as sorry as I am ashamed
Should have been smarter
Should have tried harder
Should have been quick to your game
You're a good looking loser

And I'm the one who got away
Nobody said it'd be different this time
Maybe you're all the same
And I had my doubts
But I threw them all out
I had faith
That there would be no price to pay
You're a good looking loser
And I'm the one who got away
Yeah I'm the one, I'm the one, I'm the one, I'm the one who got away
I'm the one, I'm the one, I'm the one, I'm the one who got away
Yeah I'm the one, I'm the one, I'm the one, I'm the one who got away
You're a good looking loser
And I will do what I have to do
