My Ruin

I put my trust in you and you betrayed me
Took what I gave you and fuckin' raped me
But you can't kill me, it's not that easy
I'm still standing, still breathing Spitfire, spite hate, spit all the shit you talk
Right back in your face
I spit liars, I spit names
I spit truth and my song remains the same I gave you faith when none believed you Barely escaped but who deceived who?
You tried to guilt me with things you'd tell me
You didn't build me, you can't sell me Spitfire, spite hate, spit all the shit you talk
Right back in your face
I spit liars, I spit names
I spit truth and my song remains the same Small man, big mouth
Small man, big mouth
Yeah, fuck your label! Spitfire, spite hate, spit all the shit you talk
Right back in your face
I spit liars, I spit names
I spit truth and my song remains the same Small man, big mouth, misogynistic
Small man, big mouth, chauvinistic
Small man, big mouth
Small man, big mouth, you suck
