Hawkmoon 269

U2

Like a desert needs rain
Like a town needs a name
I need your love
Like a drifter needs a room
Hawk moon
I need your love
I need your loveLike a rhythm unbroken
Like drums in the night
Like sweet soul music
Like sunlight
I need your loveLike coming home
And you don't know where you've been
Like black coffee
Like nicotine
I need your love
(I need your love)
I need your love
(I need your love)
I need your love
(I need your love)When the night has no end
And the day yet to begin
As the room spins around
I need your love
I need your loveLike a Phoenix rising needs a holy tree
Like the sweet revenge of a bitter enemy
I need your love
(I need your love)Like the hot needs the sun
Like honey on her tongue
Like the muzzle of a gun
Like oxygen
I need your love
(I need your love)
I need your love
(I need your love)
I need your love
(I need your love)When the night has no end
And the day yet to begin
As the room spins around
I need your loveI need your love

I need your love
I need your love
I need your love
I need your love
I need your love
I need your love
I need your love
I need your loveLike thunder needs rain
Like a preacher needs pain
Like tongues of flame
Like a sweet stain
I need your love
(I need your love)Like a needle in a vein
Like someone to blame
Like a thought unchained
Like a runaway train
I need your loveI need your love
I need your love
I need your love
I need your love
I need your love
I need your love
I need your loveLike faith needs a doubt
Like a freeway out
I need your love(In the heart of the heat of the love)
Like powder needs a spark
Like lies need the dark
(In the heart of the heat of the love)
I need your love
(In the heart of the heat of the love)In the heart of the heat of the love
In the heart of the heat of the love
