Sweet-faced ones with nothing left inside
That we all can love, that we all can love, that we all
That we all can love, that we all can love, that we allWhen I see you messing me around
I don't want to know, I don't want to know, I don't want to Did I see you messing me around?
I don't want to know, I don't want to know, I don't want to knowBroken hearts make it rain
Broken hearts make it rain
Broken hearts make it rain
Broken hearts make it rain
Broken hearts make it rain
Broken hearts make it rain
Broken hearts make it rain
Broken hearts make it rain
Broken hearts make it rain
Broken heartsBroken hearts make it rain
Broken hearts make it rain
Broken hearts make it rain
Broken hearts make it rain
Broken hearts make it rain
Broken hearts make it rain
Broken hearts make it rain
Broken hearts make it rain
Broken hearts make it rainPieces of a ragdoll mankind
That we can't create, that we can't create, that we can't Pieces of a wreck of mankind
That we can't create, that we can't createWhen all I see you messing me around
I don't want to know, I don't want to know, I don't want
When I see you searching me around
I don't want to know, I don't want to know, I don't want to know
