

You Make Me Brave

Billy Bragg

There's a place, a place that I go
Where I curl in a ball on the floor
And no one can know And the fear wells up inside
I'm just falling again
Feel I'm falling again And you make me brave
Then you make me brave When the dark and all of the doubt
Crowds in around me
And blocks the world out And then I, I see you smile
And I'm flying again
Yes, I'm flying again 'cause you make me brave
Yes, you make me brave What's to come? No one can know
But I fear for the future
What it may hold Take my hand, take it today
Let's not live in the past
Let's not hide in the past Today, today
Live for today
Live for today
