

Mr. Dark

Burning Image

The news took us all by surprise
When Mr. Dark came and swept you away
You had a look of sheer bliss on your face

And you wanted to end your life that way
Wasn't it you that said death was your last resort?

You made it your right to set yourself free

How does it feel to have a god that doesn't give a shit?

Mr. Dark will put your soul at ease
I felt the blood run cold in my veins

And the pain in my heart too much to bear

Where was your god when you needed him the most?

That's what happens when you have a god that doesn't care.
Wasn't it you that said death was your last resort?

Mr. Dark will take care of you

How does it feel to have a god that doesn't give a fuck?

Now, Mr. Dark will set your soul at ease

Wasn't it you that said death was your last resort?

You made it your right to set yourself free

How does it feel to have a god that doesn't give a shit?

Mr. Dark will set your soul at ease
