

The Playground

Big L.C.T.

I don't remember what the hell happened, last night
Kisses on my neck and a phone number that I didn't write
It was in Sharpie and she wrote a note, read:
Forever fixed will soon be broke
And those who fall going to overdose
Now I'm in the pool house
Sittin' here
Explaining G.H.O.S.T.
Now I been troubled
I been schemin
I been hurtin
I been bleedin
Now understand
This was unplanned
We took a pic
And it's in high demand
Now, I'm the man
That she been lying about
We watching Netflix lying down
All I want, is her in my arms
And our blank minds
Be "safe and sound"
But now she sendin texts
Like "you gon hate me"
This "love" thing
It's about to break me
I'm going crazy
I can't take it no more
(I can't take it no more)
She too inconsistent
Keep change her mind
Like I should love you
Your the perfect guy
But there's another one
And I can't decide
I said, "I guess you did"
Then my mind
It's starts to back track
And I think about

All the times we had
Our entire past
Misunderstood
You the only one
Who really knew I could
And knew how I felt
And I feel for you
You know I can't pretend
So while we're being honest
I would do it all again(Chorus)
We got the highs and lows
If we take too much
We could overdose

(4x)

We was chillin' by the playground
(2x)I put in trust, I put in time
I put in love, but it wasn't enough
I remember all those simple times
When you would win
Every time we fight
We would have fun
Way late a night
When you got cold
You would wear my coat
When it got dark
You would hold my hands
Ask "what is life?"
I'd respond with Romance
It's romance and you taught me girl
We can slow dance
And be cocky girl
See you the type
That ain't got a type
Can't be categorized
You got me girl
But now your best friend
Thinking suicide
You was on the phone
And they had a knife
Don't say let 'em goodbye
Don't let 'em take they life
So you needed space
And you needed time
So you needed space
And you needed time

But you're worth it
so
You know I can't pretend
So while we're being honest
I would do it all again(Chorus)
We got the highs and lows
If we take too much
We could overdose
(4x)
We was chillin' by the playground
(2x)(Outro)
You know I don't pretend
So while we're being honest
I would do it all again (2x)You I can't pretend
So while we're being honest
...
I would do it all againWe was chillin' by the playground(x2)
