Dreaming

Zero 7

Ive sworn, my love
Ive been reborn, my love
Dont be forlorn, my loveIve torn my heart
Do not mourn my depart
Ive been reborn, my loveI'm watching you
There's nothing they can do
Now, I'm reborn, my loveYeah, you must believe
Youll live on without me
Im leaving all my loveI am awake and you are only dreaming
Youll be okay and you will find some meaning
You will not break, though, you'll buckle with feelings
I am awake and you are only dreamingDont fear my friend 'cause there is no real end
Ive been reborn, my love
Im happy here, I have nothing to fear
Im getting all the love, oh, yeahSo, shed a tear for all the happy years
And just move on, my love
Ill ride this crowd and when your time comes 'round
Well need all our loveI am awake and you are only dreaming
Youll be okay and you will find some meaning
You will not break, though, you'll buckle with feelings
I am awake and you are only dreamingI am awake and you are only dreaming
Youll be okay and you will find some meaning
You will not break, though, you'll buckle with feelings
I am awake and you are only dreaming
