

Loser

Beartooth

I've always been a fan of the night life, cause it's the only life I had Expressing my mind with paper and a pen playing my guitar till my fingers bled on the carpet
Maybe I wasn't like all the normal kids, I was born just a little bit different
I tried to fit in, I got sick of it
I tried to fit in, I got sick of it You say I'm just a loser in the background, I can never seem to get it right
But I'm learning my worth is more than your word
You told me I would back out, I would break down, I'm not even putting up a fight
But I'm learning my worth is more than your word It wasn't easy being rejected by the thing I wanted so bad
To be excepted, to be wanted, to wake up and say this is gonna be a good day
Maybe I wasn't like all the normal kids, I was born just a little bit different
I tried to fit in, I got sick of it
I tried to fit in, I got sick of it You say I'm just a loser in the background, I can never seem to get it right
But I'm learning my worth is more than your word
You told me I would back out, I would break down, I'm not even putting up a fight
But I'm learning my worth is more than your word, more than your word I was born a little bit different
I was born a little bit different
I was born just a little bit different I was born a little bit different
I was born a little bit different You say I'm just a loser in the background, I can never seem to get it right
But I'm learning my worth is more than your word You say I'm just a loser in the background, I can never seem to get it right
But I'm learning my worth is more than your word
You told me I would back out, I would break down, I'm not even putting up a fight
But I'm learning my worth is more than your word I got sick of it
I got sick of it
I tried to fit in, I got sick of it
I tried to fit in, I got sick of it
