

Wrong Impression (feat. Emilio Rojas)

Emanny

You got me f*cked up I ain't tryin to buy you, no you got me drunked up move your body, 'cause your body is like a bottle you got me staring base bangin lights. you and your best friend harass me I know you lie sharing Ohh when I need you out this club Uhh when I get you out your clothes, uhh when I need you front that mirror we ain't gotta rush, we can slow it down don't wanna leave the wrong impression
you got me f*cked up You got me f*ck up, I ain't gotta lie to you no, you must be hung up of your .is the past so just leave em where you .have you you got me cuffed up only for the last few songs you must be f*cked up like I can't get you home Ohh when I need you out this club, while I get you out this club Uhh when I get you out your clothes, your clothes uhh when I need you front that mirror
you got me f*cked up Yeah baby don't get it twisted just 'cause I want it don't mean I miss it I know the only thing you scared of this commitment so we gonna do this thing different you the one I give when I need to get . and I'm the one you call when you need to get a dick I don't need it all, I just need a bit when we done we back up on our shit and that's the shit I like and that's the shit you like too shit, that's probably why I like you now I seat here and say just what I might do because action speak a lot when I like proof I got a condom baby when the night . if it's wrong them maybe you're my wife you gotta love me, you just gotta like me but don't be leaving any more girlyou got me f*cked up

you got me f*cked up
you got me f*cked up
you got me f*cked up
