

Back On the Map

Echo Orbiter

Take the cup
Hold it up
Serious contortionist

Rally the troops
Thundering hooves
Capture the ears
And bomb them out to deaf

We're back on the map, you see

Snake untuck
Snare the flood
Tie undone
Beehive stung

Plug in the clock
A paper airplane fly-by
The fuzzy interior feels
Especially nice against cheeks

Medicine and alcohol follow ground rules
Leave the ground; contain the sound, heave out the standards
And then blame all the mayors
