

Paper Cup

Heather Nova

Wishful thinking I might be yours

Drifting on every step

I'm always drawn to the dark horse

Sweet sweet, oh nothing's saidAnd every dream is just a dream, after allAnd everything stands so still when you
dance

Everything spins so fast

And the night's in a paper cup

When you want it to lastWishful thinking you might be mine

Every shiver sends

One breath under the bridge of sighs

Bending where the river bendsAnd every dream is just a dream, after allAnd everything stands so still when you
dance

Everything spins so fast

And the nights in a paper cup

When you want it to lastAnd every dream is just a dream, after allAnd everything stands so still when you dance

Everything spins so fast

And the night's in a paper cup

When you want it to lastAnd everything stands so still when you dance

Everything spins so fast

And the night's in a paper cup

When you want it to last
