Mirage

ceo

Don't know much about this world
But don't mind us, don't mind us
We play the odds to one
If we go out we blush
You play on just like you want
Still on a rush, still in a crush
Coming down just one more time
You're waving from the crossWhen you see love, I see a mirage
You sway, roll about
We're too young to rush
Laying your body, start
Only tell you ways I grip
I slide when you say runDon't know much about this world
New ways are new, like prince and you
The chill light of the void is slowly shining through
You know so much about this world
And still so blue, you're kind of screwed
And if you think I doWhen you see love, I see a mirage
You sway, roll about
We're too young to rush
Laying your body, start
Only tell you ways I grip
I slide when you say run
