

Dark Horse II

Hermano

Beacon home
Light so bright
Warn to the sailors
Alone through time

Lift up your pillow
The night set on high
He's only a sailor
Slowly coming home

Here comes home
Simple home
We'll sing the kind of song
We'll do so much more

Won't you slow it down a minute, man?
And swear to your sailor a home
Is it a fact the sailor man
Caters to only the moon?

We'll sail the coastline
And I'll set my pillow down
Come, sail the fault line
Is that what you heard?

Reclaiming home
Light so bright
Warn to the sailor
Alone through time

Won't you slow it down a minute, man?
And swear to your sailor a home
Is it a fact the sailor man
Caters to only the moon?

Won't you slow it down a minute, man?
And swear to your sailor a home
Is it a fact the sailor man
Caters to only the moon?

Caters to your only moon
Caters to your only moon
Is it a fact the sailor man
Caters to only the moon?

Here comes home
Simple home
We'll sing the kind of song
We'll do so much more
