Silence, the silence within me, is deep within, is deep within, silence, the silence within me, you've got to wake up
Silence, the silence within me, is deep within, is deep within, silence, the silence within me, you've got to wake upSo now you think you're blind
You could never see
The truth behind your lies
You don't - think; you walked away
I'm falling down the road
I thought this world would end
You seem so sick of this world
Why - don't - you - just - leaveI - blame no one for my regrets
No one cares
Think you walked away
The darker the hole
I regress
The sounds of the words is all that's leftBecause the world is over
I had to let this go
Cause we can't go on anymore
The world is over
I had to let this go
Cause we can't go on anymoreSilence, the silence within me, is deep within, is deep within, silence, the silence within me, we can't go on anymore
Silence, the silence within me, is deep within, is deep within, silence, the silence within me, you've got to wake upBecause the world is over
I had to let this go
Cause we can't go on anymore
The world is over
I had to let this go
Cause we can't go on anymore
Cause the world is over
I had to let this go
Cause we can't go on anymore
The world is over
I had to let this go
Cause we can't go on anymore
