

Linger

Azekel

I'm taking back apologies
Like a moth I'm thrown to you
It's never the purpose
I got myself unqualified
Whatever loan to you
You said I've been loved I can't feel you on my body
Yeah, then we'll still think of something
Uh uuh uuh, then we'll still think of something
This time won't have to face
I long for a touch from you
I'd give on your word
Like a diamond before my eyes
I gotta give my life on you
There's no way to last I can't feel you on my body
And it's so clear I'm drawn to the heat of your
We'll still think of something
We'll still think of something
As dark as the ocean, deep as the storm
Stating your lies, your lies
As the cold as the air been washed through my soul
Stating your lies, your lies
Your taste still lingers on me
Oh ooh
Your taste still lingers on me
Uh uuh
Your taste still lingers on me
