All My Life

Thirsty Merc

Today, I left my house and I started walking
Barefooted out to the water,
My eyes won't sleep.And I walked out to the bridge,
Where I once had met you.
I could feel your footsteps,
Under my feet.But now there's nothing I can do,All my life.
I've waited here for you,
To make my dreams come true.
The force to get me through.All my life.
Like waves upon the sand,
the ocean meets dry land.
My heart is in your hands.
Yeahh.I know,
I must be crazy or superstitious
But I swear I thought that maybe,
You'd be here.But now, i look around your in all my senses
But it breaks my heart to see the view so clear.
You say you only needed time
But time has been so cruel
And there's nothing i can do.All my life.
I've waited here for you.
To make my dreams come true.
The force to get me through.All my life.
Like waves upon the sand.
The ocean meets dry land.
My heart is in your hands.
Yeahh.All my life
I've waited here for you.
To make my dreams come true
A force to get me through.All my life.
Like waves upon the sand.
The ocean meets dry land.
My heart is in your hands.All my life.
I waited for you.
