

Billion Years (feat. Taylor Hill)

Trip Lee

[Taylor Hill & Trip Lee:]

A billion years ahead
This old world will be nothing
There's a joy that is coming like the morning
And nothing that we left
Will compare to this new song
Hearts united in freedom
And it sounds like
(Repeat oh's)

Will compare to this new song
Hearts united in freedom Yessuh

On my way home
My rear view mirror's ripped off

On my way home
Hey why look back? Let's lift off

On my way home
No reminiscing, I will not bother

On my way home
Don't dwell on the past unless it's Golgotha

Let's go!

My life ain't field skipping, come field tripping if you don't believe me

My life is a war zone
No meal ticket, nothing coming easy

I got a lotta bad burns
I got a few stab wounds

Bullet holes in my Air 1's
I'll be done with all that soon

Yeah, I lost a few loved ones
I enjoyed a lotta good times

Feet tired from the journey
But my heart's new that's a good sign

Oh no

Won't be stopping my pilgrimage uptown

Oh no

I'm headed way way too high up to come down

Somebody told me

I ain't gotta pack no lights, it stay lit

Somebody told me

Ain't no joy that I want that I can't get

Life as we know it will change
I'm in there with my gang
To be with the lamb who was slain[Taylor Hill:]

Hearts united with freedom
And it sounds like[Trip Lee:]
Ah we out here mobbing we do things
Violent and vicious, grew fangs
Wildin and wicked, fools man
We at the top of the food chain
Cannabilizing our crews, daily it's dudes slain
Murderous thinking ain't new
If you don't think it's true ask my dude, Cain
Tell me how civilized is a world where the killer thrives
Darker victims villainized, and authority's ill advised
The snake and his venom is all in us, no immunize
We need a Jonah we Ninevized, then arrives
The Lion of Judah, He came
The Son set down in our world, and still He reigned
Our infatuation with killing extended to Him He was slain
All that He made will get this redemption, it's finally reclaimed, we'll sing
Somebody told me, I won't need a shoulder to weep on, no more tears
Somebody told me, I ain't gotta hold no heat ain't no mo fears
Life as we know it will change
Don't need no pills ain't no pain
Ain't no successor forever He reigns
