V1
Just wait and it'll creep in
Sit an hour
Sip your glass
And slowly let it begin
This time
Don't you think we'll be fine?I cannot tell if it's your eyes that have changed
You've always seen right through me
But it's never felt strange
Until now
While the room spins aroundCh
I try breathing in
Breathing out
(But it's still no good)
Close my eyes
And block out the sound
(But it's still no good)Your face begins to change
And the room is rearranged
I heard the things you've said
But your voice is not the same
I've been here before, but I won't come back again
Old friend
It's time to find my way out
Time to find my way outV2
I can feel us sinking
The lights have got so dim
And I am running out of reasons
It's time
I didn't think that you'd mind
We got used to being so lonely right?BR.
Fix eyes
Walk straight

Don't look lostTune out
Talk shit
Take them allDuck down
Don't blink
She'll be crossWe're cool
Keep calm
Casket callsCh
I try breathing in
Breathing out
(But it's still no good)
Close my eyes
(But it's still no good)Your face begins to change
And the room is rearranged
I heard the things you've said
But your voice is not the same
Old friend
Time to find my way out
