Damaged Promises

Bloodflowerz

You and I
Fear the silence tonight
Can't Stop the end
Violent silence
Silent violenceWe're alone
Like weeping children
With no home
I lost your hand
But memories will stay
It won't fade awayMaybe love is the same as hate
Maybe pain gonna be our fate
I have to change my tears
(damaged promises)
For something to believe inLove is a fight
Seems we're losing it tonight
One touch
One kiss
This could be the last
It went away to fastMaybe love is the same as hate
Maybe pain gonna be our fate
I have to change my tears
(damaged promises)
For something to believe inOur difference dug the grave
To bury damaged promises
One day it was too late
You love to hate me and I love to hate youMaybe love is the same as hate
Maybe pain gonna be our fate
I have to change my tears
(damaged promises)
For something to believe in
