If It Were Me

Radney Foster

Her eyes tell the story
Too many nights alone
He always takes for granted
She's waiting there at homeHe treats her like she's nothing
Man, that guy's a fool
Can't he see
He holds a priceless jewelIf it were me
I'd be thanking my lucky stars
If it were me
I'd be holding her in my armsShe'd never ever wonder
What true love means
If it were meI've heard the lies he tells her
When he stays out 'til dawn
The stuff he tries to sell her
Nobody buys for longShe deserves much better
Than the crumbs he throws her way
I think it's time somebody
Set him straightIf it were me
I'd be thanking my lucky stars
If it were me
I'd be holding her in my armsShe'd never ever wonder
What true love means
If it were meSomeday she's gonna realize
She's worth a whole lot more
I'll be right there
Waiting at her doorIf it were me
I'd be thanking my lucky stars
If it were me
I'd be holding her in my armsShe'd never ever wonder
What true love means
If it were me
If it were me
