

Never Bow Down

Third Day

Take me from my home
Drag me with a tether
Tell me its all wrong, the things I've always known
Instill in me all that you think will make all of us better
Do just what you want it matters not to me And I will never bow down
For I know I will be saved from the fire
And I will never compromise
All that I have and everything I own Called the Son of Man
To show us what You have made
Command us all to fall
The music starts to fade
And everyone from everywhere
Will show You their allegiance
But the child of God will faithfully stand tall And I will never bow down
For I know I will be saved from the fire
And I will never compromise
All that I have and everything I own
Oh no, oh no I'll never bow down
Oh no, oh no
Aw yeah And I will never bow down
For I know I will be saved from the fire
And I will never compromise
All that I have and everything I own And I will never bow down
For I know we will be saved from the fire
And we will never compromise
All that we have and everything we hold
Oh no, oh no no
We'll never bow down
