

Days in Serenity

Synchrony

I felt your ways taking over me I am out of control just a blank mind driven by every whim and desire what do we share cause I would'nt call it love my heart is caught in the wires let me out I don't think that you can make it if I wasn't there to satisfy your pride How could I ever escape this I need to know why I'm always by your side you know I don't really feel it so end it cause I can't take anymore I long for days in serenity away from your reign give me strength to step up and choose to leave this dominion I can not bare to make way for you again my soul is stuck in the mire
let me out I don't think that you can make it
if I wasn't there to satisfy your pride How could I ever escape this
so end it cause I can't take anymore I'm correcting my fate now by removing you from my life (today is when I seize to be a slave) I assure it's too late for you to fix it all this is my time to breathe you know I don't really feel it so end it cause I can't take anymore How could I ever escape this I need to know why I'm always by your side
so end it cause I can't take anymore
