Poison

Lisa Stansfield

Don't worry about me, baby
Whenever you walk by me I can hear you breathe
I can smell the love you made when you were gone
Darling don't deny it or try to make excuses
I've heard too many lies to know that I'm not wrong
Baby don't insult me
I'm too tired to let it hurt me
Baby just believe me
And give me back my key and set me free
Keep your body to yourself
Or give it to somebody else, you're poison
Can't you see I'm far too tough to let it hurt?
I've had enough of your poison
Don't lay your hands upon me
Just crawl back where you came from
I shudder at the thought of you touching me
You've stained the love I gave you, baby, not for long
So much I could have given you but now you'll never know
Baby don't insult me
I'm far too tired to let it hurt me
Baby just believe me
And give me back my key and set me free
Keep your body to yourself
Or give it to somebody else, you're poison
Can't you see I'm far too tough to let it hurt?
I've had enough of your poison
Got bad habits on your mind
You're underhanded but I'm not blind to your poison
Don't make me laugh
You've told so many lies
And of all the lies you told me
Baby you're the biggest
Don't think you've hurt me
I'm far too strong to let it get to me
Can't you see that I'm not crying anymore
So just get off my back and leave me alone
Keep your body to yourself
Or give it to somebody else, you're poison
Can't you see I'm far too tough to let it hurt?

I've had enough of your poison
Don't poison me with mmm your
Keep your body to yourself
Or give it to somebody else, you're poison
Got bad habits on your mind
You're underhanded but I'm not blind to your poison
I'm not blind baby, I'm not blind
Keep your body to yourself
Or give it to somebody else, you're poison
Can't you see I'm far too tough to let it hurt?
I've had enough of your poison
