Leather Rebel

Judas Priest

Hero of the nights
Blood and thunder
Rushing through me
Till the dawn of light
The sky is turning redLike a renegade
All alone I walk through fire
Till I crash and blaze
I'm living on the edgeStart a chain reaction
Sears the neon light
Stealing all the action
Always takes the fightLeather rebel
Lightning in the dark
Leather rebel
With a burning heartMaster of the streets
Bullet proof and bound for glory
Cities at my feet
I'm turning on the powerRunning wild and free
No one dares to stand before me
That's my destiny
To rule the darkest hoursI can see my future
Writings on the wall
Legend in my lifetime
Stories will recallLeather rebel
Lightning in the dark
Leather rebel
With a burning heartI can see my future
Writings on the wall
Legend in my lifetime
Stories will recallLeather rebel
Lightning in the dark
Leather rebel
With a burning heartLeather rebel
Lightning in the dark
Leather rebel
With a burning heartLeather rebel
Leather rebel
Leather rebel
Leather rebel
