Falls Back On

Nickelback

No, I don't guess I don't sacrifice and I know
I don't realize just how much I can idolize
And I know and I know
And then I find it falls back on to me, to see, believe
Down onto you, we do, it's true and I won't beg
To stay, to leave, or to believe a word you say
And then I guess it all falls back on you to find out
Find out what's the deal and I guess you don't simplify
It's just, you had to had to take and I know and I know
And then I guess it all falls back on you
There's a fine line between right and wrong
And I know we knew all along
Just how much I can half belong
And I know and I know
And then I find it falls back on to me, to see, believe
Down onto you, we do, it's true and I won't beg
To stay, to leave, or to believe a word you say

And then I guess it all falls back on you to find out
Find out what's the deal and I guess you don't simplify
It's just, you had to had to take and I know and I know
And then I guess it all falls back on you
'Cause I'm really up on this 'cause I'm really up on this
'Cause I've seen it before where the hell did I get through you?
No, I don't guess I don't sacrifice and I know
I don't realize just how much I can idolize
And I know and I know
And then I find it falls back on to me, to see, believe
Down onto you, we do, it's true and I won't beg
To stay, to leave, or to believe a word you say
And then I guess it all falls back on you to find out
Find out what's the deal and I guess you don't simplify
It's just, you had to had to take and I know and I know
And then I guess it all falls back on you, on you, on you
