

All the Animals

Jewel

All the animals
Agree you and me
Should be a team And they walk on parade
Say that we were made
To be a team And my heart melts when you are near
I am your little communion And all the rainbows
Tell me that they know
We're a perfect pair And the clouds up in the sky
Say they can see it from way up high
We're a perfect pair And my wings weaken beneath your will
And before you I am trembling and still All the birds know it
One and one is two
All the bees see it
Tell me why don't you And all the light of the sun
Doesn't help me out none
'cause you still can't see me
