No One Gets out Alive

Everybody Panic!

I was held down by my father
Bloody nose just like my mother
Anger and fear drive my obsession
Iâ€™m not here for your confession

Cause no matter how far you run
No matter how hard you tried
No one gets out this world alive
So when you search for the truth
Donâ€™t look to the sky
No turning back now that you crossed that line

No one gets out alive

Everything seems like is going crazy
Moving in the rain is a thinking, maybe
The devil has to make you kind of suffer
The devil has waiting to avenge his mother
And everythingâ€™s goingâ€¦ fine
And Iâ€™ll here wait to get mine

Pushing, pushing, pushing back
Pushing in, pushing out
Pushing deep inside
Pushing back, pushing in
And try to deny
All the things, all the facts you need to hide
One thing for sure: You should have never left me awhile

Cause no matter how far you run
No matter how hard you tried
No one gets out this world alive
So when you search for the truth
Donâ€™t look to the sky
No turning back now that you crossed that line

Iâ€™ll would heal myself, if I fall
It was hell
Go on and run
Cause no matter how hard you tried

No on gets out this world alive
So when you search for the truth
Donâ€™t look to the sky
No turning back now that you crossed that line

No one gets out alive
Now everybody dies
