Heaven

Hayley Westenra

A star shining in a universe far away

My heart knows that we shall meet again some sweet day

And you, you will be the flame that burns in my breast

And oh, I know just by knowing you I was blessed,

Yes I was truly blessedHeaven, Heaven, ooh waiting there for me

Heaven, Heaven, ooh always let it beSo why, tell me why the good die young my old friend

I pray that heaven waits for everyone in the end

And love, love is how we cross that bridge to the light

A star that is what you are in my darkest night

Be always by my sideHeaven, Heaven, ooh waiting there for me

Heaven, Heaven, ooh always let it be
