Rising Force

Yngwie Malmsteen

Out of the darkness the voices are calling
Riding the wings of a song
The fury is screaming and Heaven is falling
I feel it coming on strongThe lightning strikes cracking the night
It feels like never before
Thunder and spark in the heart of the dark
I hear a rising forceSearching my soul now I find something else
I take my life in my hands
Through the gates of Heaven to the altars of Hell
The power is at my commandThe lightning strikes cracking the night
It feels like never before
Thunder and spark in the heart of the dark
I feel a rising forceBurned by the glory of a sacred fire
The rising force starts to shine
Alone in the inferno it soars ever higher
Leaving the demons behindThe lightning strikes cracking the night
It feels like never before
Thunder and spark in the heart of the dark
I feel a rising forceThe lightning strikes cracking the night
I'm not the same anymore, no
Thunder and spark in the heart of the dark
I feel a rising force
