

Supermodel

V Factory

There she goes once again
Off the chain with her bag
And swagger out of a scene, yeah
Doing shows, switching clothes
Striking poses for the hottest fashion magazines Supermodel (super super)
Supermodel, yeah
Supermodel (super duper)
Supermodel, yeah She's a ten-point hottie from her head to her toes
On the catwalk bouncing in the glamorous stroll
She's got, camera's following wherever she goes
She's a supermodel, supermodel She is dressed in the best, nothing less
From the hot fashion hot good tour, yeah
Body shaped like a sculpture
Something like art from Michelangelo Supermodel (super super)
Supermodel, yeah
Supermodel (super duper)
Supermodel, yeah She's a ten-point hottie from her head to her toes
On the catwalk bouncing in the glamorous stroll
She's got, camera's following wherever she goes
She's a supermodel, supermodel She's a dime, shining like a star
She is so electrical and so beautiful
So divine and the way she walks
Got me hypnotized, paralysed She's a ten-point hottie from her head to her toes
On the catwalk bouncing in the glamorous stroll
She's got, camera's following wherever she goes
She's a supermodel, supermodel She's a ten-point hottie from her head to her toes
On the catwalk bouncing in the glamorous stroll
She's got, camera's following wherever she goes
She's a supermodel, supermodel Note: I'm not sure about the second and third lines of the first verse. And I'm not sure about the second and third lines in the second verse. Help?
