I Won't Change You

Sophie Ellis-Bextor

I used to change my accent, change my stance
My phone number, the way I dance
Some people change lovers like they change their sheets
But I won't change you, honey, you're for keeps
I used to think I had to change the way I am
To feel better, to get a man
But once I stopped trying I fell for you
You fell for me, so I'll stay the same for you
Oh yeah, I know that I'm not perfect, baby
Oh yeah, it's no reason to go crazy
Oh yeah, boy you can always count on me
For better or for worse, I will always put you first
Now that I have found you, you've changed my life
'Cause you're the one who showed me I had everything right
We're never gonna differ 'cause we know it's true
So don't change me and I won't change you
And I won't change
And I won't change you
I used to change my style like I changed my mind
I tried to change a tyre but I'm not that way inclined
Tried to change my figure, my diet too
I'll still change my underwear if that's okay with you
Oh yeah, the world can sometimes make you feel bad
Oh yeah, but don't forget the things you have
Oh yeah, boy you can always count on me
In sickness and in health, baby, always be yourself
Now that I have found you, you've changed my life
'Cause you're the one who showed me I had everything right
We're never gonna differ 'cause we know it's true
So don't change me and I won't change you
And I won't change, and I won't change you
And I won't change, and I won't change you
And I won't change, and I won't change you
Now that I have found you, you've changed my life
You're the one who showed me I had everything right
We're never gonna differ 'cause we know it's true
So don't change me and I won't change you
Now that I have found you, you've changed my life
'Cause you're the one who showed me I had everything right

We're never gonna differ 'cause we know it's true
So don't change me and I won't change you
And I won't change, and I won't change you
And I won't change, and I won't change you
And I won't change, and I won't change you
So don't change me and I won't change you
And I won't change, and I won't change you
And I won't change, and I won't change you
And I won't change, and I won't change you
