

Getting Older Every Day

Big Bill Broonzy

You say you're gettin' old, Lord older every day

You say you're gettin' old, yeah you say you're gettin' older every day

Now you ain't but fifty, ooh Lord boy you shouldn't feel that way Now when you get so old, you can't work at no mill

Yeah when you get so old, Lord boy you can't work at no mill

Now don't you make no date, ooh Lord buddy that you can't fill Now if your luck don't change, boy don't you be sad

Yeah if your luck don't change, now buddy don't you be sad

Now you really gotta learn Lord to take the good now with the bad
Now when you get old, and your good girl don't want you around

Ooh Lord when you get old, and your good girl don't want you around

Now you know you done run out of commission, ooh boy I declare you are poorhouse bound
