Love With No Words

Chris Rosser

When you came into my world you didnâ€™t cry
You stopped and looked around, only for a moment.
And we knew that you were perfect in every way,
One of a kind, we didnâ€™t know how

(Chorus)
Love, with no words,
Can you find your voice in a noisy world?
Who will help you write your song?
Whoâ€™ll defend you, when weâ€™re gone?
Whoâ€™ll defend you, when weâ€™re gone?

Oh, that woman in the park yesterday
Didnâ€™t understand, at least I hope she didnâ€™t
When she said those words to you, you didnâ€™t cry
You didnâ€™t even notice like you can only do.
Itâ€™s people like that make parents of children like you
Stay up all night trying to say, just walk a mile in his shoes
Not his whole life, tossing and turning
But it never comes out right

(Chorus)
Love, with no words,
Can you find your voice in a noisy world?
Who will help you write your song?
Whoâ€™ll defend you, when weâ€™re gone?
Whoâ€™ll defend you?
