Deliverance

Up Front

too far gone, you're stepping over the line it seems you're just along for a free ride just a joke 'cause I know you'll never last when will you see that you're going nowhere fastafraid to change, you're even scared to try because your mind's so fucking narrow you'll never touch me with your bottled lies 'cause I'm always gonna be straight like an arrowtoo far gone, you're stepping over the line
it seems you're just along for a free ride I'll face my challenges, I won't walk away take care of myself 'cause I know that I'm here to stayI'll never let you bring me down you'd better hope and pray I never do 'cause I'll be reaching for higher ground and I'm gonna be stepping hard on top of you
