Cornerstone

Ed Kowalczyk

The stone that the builder refused
Will always be the head cornerstone
The stone that the builder refused
Will always be the head cornerstoneYou're a builder
And here I am, a stone
Don't you think and refuse me
Cause the things people refuse
Are the things they should use
Do you hear me?Hear what I sayThe stone that the builder refused
Will always be the head cornerstone
The stone that the builder refused
Will always be the head cornerstoneHere I am baby
I'm a builder's stone
Don't you pick and refuse me
Listen
The things people refuse
Are the things they should use
Do you hear me?Hear what I sayThe stone that the builder refused
Will always be the head cornerstone
The stone that the builder refused
Will always be the head cornerstoneThe stone that the builder refused
Will always be the head cornerstone
The stone that the builder refused
Will always be the head cornerstone
