

Hollywood

Lissie

Maybe it's time that I was leaving
I got a long way to go
I'm through with all that make-believing
Getting blood from a stone
Should've already known I fell in love with California
I fell in love with a dream
No matter how they try and warn you
You fall apart at the seams
Still, a dream's all you need It's alright, it's OK
It don't matter what they say
And if it hurts, let it go
Night after night and show by show
Oh, Hollywood
You broke my heart just because you could
Oh, Hollywood
I know Mama, come meet me at the station
I'm coming home for a while
I'm ready for that conversation
About the way I'm running wild
And suddenly, I'm a child
