

Too Much

G.B.H.

Well I've got a real hot feelin',
in this real cold world.
I'm in love, with a humongous girl.
She sleeps all day in a ruined church, night time comes, she's got me in her lurch. Still air explosions with her silent touch, oh, oh, I want her too much.
Too much (ah I want her too much), too much - humongous. She's got an evil eye and a wicked streak.
And when she kisses me, you bet my knees turn weak.
She'll eat you up and spit out your bones,
don't look far 'cos I'll be gone.
