(putting My) Heart On The Line

Peter Frampton

I could be happy sitting alone walking on my own
I need you God knows why I can't live without youPutting my heart on the line
You know I am show me a sign
Putting my heart on the line, yeahComing from my heart
Over to you don't you understand
You could be me now just a day
Don't you know that I love you'Cause I'm putting my heart on the line
You know I am give me a sign I want a sign
Putting my heart on the line 'cause I need youThinking, thinking of you
Makes it harder, yeahGotta be free
Don't you see I don't need no wishesPutting my heart on the line
Please show me that sign
Putting my heart on the line
Right now for mePutting my heart on the line
You gotta show me that sign in your eyes
Putting my heart on the line
Once more with youYou want to wear my heart
Take it from where it starts
Putting my heart on the line
Today always, always you
