

Silver Lining

My Goodness

Will you tell me to go my way
Was it better when I left in the night to less love in the highway wind
Think of me when you're out letting loose
Is there a common thread, a hunch, maybe a clue
Mind is made up well it's true
Kinda fierce, hollow dreams, well that's you
I'm calling your bluff 'cause I think I've had enough of you
I see your silver lining but it's not worth the fighting so
Will you tell me to go my way
Was it better when I left in the night to less love in the highway wind
I could be that fool again
I was better with you even in my pocket and a friend with the time to pretend
Still think I'm out hung up on you
Was a lost cause, was a lie, maybe the truth
I've been here before, I can't lose
Kinda was a real win, well that's you
You might think that you're tough, but I think that I've had enough of you
I see your silver lining but it's not worth the fighting so
Will you tell me to go my way
Was it better when I left in the night to less love in the highway wind
I could be your fool again
I was better with you even in my pocket and a friend with the time to pretend
Will you tell me to go my way
Was it better when I left in the night to less love in the
