Fixing Me

Chase Coy

im growing up im working on these flaws of mine im letting go of pride and shedding this disguise im facing all the facts, im trying to improve im cleaning up my act, and im doing it just for you Chorus:
'Cause I am broken(I am broken would you fix me baby?)
but you are perfect(you are perfect would you fix me baby?)
and you are putting me together like a puzzle, piece by piece darling don't you know your fixing me?
I am leaving for the road, and I am leaving you behind but I swear I will come back, and I will call you every night I am facing all my fears, and im trying to improve
I have been this way for years but I'd gladly change for you(Chorus:)
And I never thought I could ever be with you and I never wanted to change before,but now I do cause I am broken and you are perfect
(Chorus:)
