

Silent Picture

deadmau5

I see you look the other way.
I know you long for something new.
So there you're wasting all your days,
looking for something that is right in front of you...

And I just want them to notice you.
And I will never let go of you.
There's something flying in the air,
and I just don't know what it could be.
The smoke is flying everywhere,
I'm getting the feeling it's the end for you and me.

And I know that we might be through,
but I - I'll never let go of you.
