

Coming Undone (Acoustic)

Darling Parade

I'll never miss you,
or the wreck that was your life,
I'm better off now,
and it burns you up inside.
You try to hate, manipulate disease.
but you won't ever get the best of me. I don't remember,
what we were friends for,
You've got nothing to live for,
and no where to run.
I hope your learning,
from these bridges your burning,
you had your shot and now we're done.
You said I'd never make it and I,
I'm gonna show you,
I've been there all along,
You've got nothing to live for,
and no where to run,
your coming undone.
You're like a cancer,
spreading from beginning to end,
I'm sorry mister,
but this war nobody wins.
You try to hate, manipulate disease.
but you won't ever get the best of me. I don't remember,
what we were friends for,
You've got nothing to live for,
and no where to run.
I hope your learning,
from these bridges your burning,
you had your shot and now we're done.
You said I'd never make it and I,
I'm gonna show you,
I've been there all along,
You've got nothing to live for,
and no where to run,
your coming undone.
I tried to tell you,
but you cut me out,
tore me down,

I bet your listening now.
Your just a number and you count for nothing,
you just brought me down.I don't remember,
what we were friends for,
You've got nothing to live for,
and no where to run.
I hope your learning,
from these bridges your burning,
you had your shot and now we're done.
You said I'd never make it and I,
I'm gonna show you,
I've been there all along,
You've got nothing to live for,
and no where to run,
your coming undone.
