

Take Your Sweet Time

Jesse McCartney

It isn't a crime to want
A little space to breathe
But you will be fine
The sun again will shine on you
Whatever you do Take your sweet, sweet time
'Cause I'll be here, when you change your mind
Take your sweet, sweet time
I'll be here for you, baby
Anytime I'm feelin' you pull away
'Cause letting go isn't easy for me
But you'll never fly
With someone else's wings, I know
Wherever you go Take your sweet, sweet time
I will be here, when you change your mind
Take your sweet, sweet time
I'll be here for you, baby
Anytime I will never stand in your way
Wherever your heart may lead you
I will love you the same
And I will be your comfort everyday
Do you hear the words I say? Take your sweet, sweet time
I will be here
When you change your mind
Take your sweet, sweet time
I'll be here for you, baby I'll take your sweet, sweet time
I will be here when you change your mind
Take your sweet, sweet time
I'll be here for you, baby
Anytime Oh, I will be here, for you
I will be here
Oh, I, I will be here
I will be here
