

Red-Suited Super Man (feat. Trombone Shorty)

Rod Stewart

Oh yeah

Listen

The tree's ready and the stockings are all hung

The fire is blazing and the carols are all sung

Everybody's waiting for a miracle

So Santa bring some joy to us all It's the season to leave our troubles behind

How amazing if the world was giving and kind

It might be crazy, it might take a miracle

Santa bring some peace to us all If anyone can do it, it's Santa who can

He's a red-suited super man

He knows everybody, got a list with all our names

And he rocks the whole world in an old fashioned sleigh Come over here baby, let's watch the snow fall

Check out the North Star, did it start it all

It's still shining, like some miracle

So Santa bring some hope to us all (bring us some hope Santa) He's a red-suited superman

And he rocks the whole world in an old fashioned sleigh I look around me, what else could I need

All my friends and family, so I gotta believe

Life is a blessing, for every boy and girl

So Santa bring some love to us all I said Santa bring some love to us all

I mean, Santa, I said Santa bring some love to us all

Yeah, not really asking much, just a little piece of love on this earth

I know, I know, I know Santa, Santa I believe in Santa

Oh yes I do, oh yes I do
