

Bittersweet Faith (Thievery Corporation Remix)

Bitter:Sweet

No regrets
Everything will work out fine
We'll hold our breath
Wait for another sign
I've tasted
Your bittersweet faith
My heart aches for you
I'm taking
A moment to say Everything I do
I do for you
I do it all for you Lay your sweet
Tears across my broken dream
Don't you speak
A word about the past
You'll need more than I'll ever give
I can't lie to you
I love you
My angel, my sin Everything I do
I do for you
I do it all for you
Anything, anything for you Are we're moving in the right direction
What is fate if fate's immersed in shame
A high price for the beauty of perfection
I go when all I want to do is stay I do for you
I do it all for you
Anything, I do it all for you
Anything for you
