If Tragedy's Appealing, Then Disaster's An Addicti

Moneen

Well tragedy's appealing
Disaster an addiction
Waiting for the good in everything
While the world keeps feelingThere's safety in this distance
This painting, entertainment
Waiting for the good in everything
While the world keeps feeling'Cause distance
With these problems
I'm not a failure now
I'm not a failure nowAnxiety's misleading
It's kosher, yet revealing
Waiting for the good in everything
While the world keeps feelingAnd shine a light down on this
And shine a light down on everyone
And everything we see
While the world keeps feelingThis distance
With these problems
I'm not a failure now
I'm not a failure now
Not a failureYou wonder why
And realize what we're made of
Afraid of
Afraid of
Afraid of
Afraid of failingFailing now
In spite of this, in spite of
I'm not a failure now
In light of this, in light of
I'm not a failure
Failing now
